

Congratulations on your Veeam Certification!

Congratulations on achieving your Veeam® Sales Professional (VMSP) certification! Please carefully read through the following to understand how to use your badge and recommended next steps.

Next Steps

1. Share your new skills on social media.

Example post for VMSP:

I just became a Veeam Certified Sales Professional! Reach out to me for solutions to your most pressing Cloud Data Management, backup and Availability challenges!

Don't forget to attach an image of your badge or certificate of completion!

2. Consider your next move.

If you recently completed the VMSP, consider taking the Veeam Technical Sales Professional (VMTSP) course to be armed with the ability to provide best-in-class consulting on a reliable product line for your customers.

FAQs

Q: I misplaced my badge and need to download it again. Where can I do this?

A: Registered ProPartners with a portal login can find their badge in Veeam IQ by doing the following:

1. On the Veeam IQ home page, click the Completions link in your user card on the left side of the screen.
2. Find the training on your list of completed items and select the Open curriculum option from the drop-down list of actions (to open the drop-down list, click the arrow button next to View completion page).
3. In the curriculum player, navigate to the Certification Resources section.
4. Find the Certification Badge and click Launch to download the badge.

Q: Where can I find my certificate of completion?

A: Once you have completed the training, your certificate of completion will be available for download. You may go back to it at any time by doing the following:

1. On the Veeam IQ home page, click the Completions link in your user card on the left side of the screen.
2. Find the training on your list of completed items and click the View completion page button.
3. On the completion page, download your certificate of completion, by selecting View My Certificate.

Q: Can I post my badge to social media?

A: We encourage you to post your badge to social media to let your social network know you are now Veeam-certified. You may also add your badge to your LinkedIn profile. You will also want to add it to your resume to highlight your new skills. See Next Steps for suggested posts.

Q: Why didn't I receive the specialty badge, even though I completed all five use-case modules?

A: Congratulations on going the extra mile and taking all the use case modules, even though only two were required for certification. You will receive your specialty badge via email in about two to four weeks.
